

1906 Club

Free golf for Wrexham Golf Club members

FORMATION

Mr. Tony Boddy of Harwich & Dovercourt Golf Club in Essex instigated the formation of the 1906 Club. The inaugural meeting was held at Horsforth Golf Club on August 12th 2005

CODE OF THE 1906 CLUB

The 1906 Club is made up of golf clubs that celebrate their Centenary in 2006. All Member Clubs agree to offer golfing privileges to fellow Club Members under specified conditions. Members of Wrexham Golf Club may apply to play at any 1906 Club that is located more than 50 miles from Wrexham. (It is possible that by mutual agreement with certain golf clubs this condition may be waived).

FREQUENCY OF VISIT

No member would be expected to visit any one club more than once per annum except if a particular agreement is reached between the clubs.

LIMIT OF MEMBERS ON ANY ONE VISIT

The number of golfers on any one visit is limited to a maximum of eight.

THE PROCEDURE

1. Full Playing Members wishing to visit a 1906 Club should contact the Secretary of the club they wish to visit and check availability for the date and time they would like to play. A number of clubs are unable to accept visitors at weekends - the list of Member Clubs gives an INDICATION regarding weekend availability.
2. Letter of introduction must be obtained from the Wrexham Golf Club Secretary/Manager for presentation to the Secretary of the golf club being visited.

MEMBER CLUBS

As at December 2008 the number of Members Clubs stood at 46.

A list of Member Clubs is on the notice board located in the men's locker room. Copies may be obtained from the secretary's office or from the Professional's Shop.

VISITORS

Wrexham Golf Club will offer courtesy to fellow 1906 Club members. Please extend as warm a welcome to these visitors as you would hope for if you visit their courses.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Members requiring further information regarding the 1906 Club please contact the Secretary/Manager - 01978 364268